Living off the beaten track

A gorgeous 3 bedroom - 2 bathroom family home in the country close to some of the best private schools in Madibeng. Close to the shopping centre and other amenities, this is the true combination of country living with the conveniences of city living.

The cathedral style roof structure provides a free sense of space and the classic architectural lines leads the eye seamlessly into the outside view over the valley. Not visible from the main road this is an ideal hide-away from the rush of the city. Automated gates & automated garage doors, allows for easy access into the house coming home at night, and the large bathrooms creates the ideal setting for a long relaxing bath after a stressful day. Lots of outside space for children to play and explore, but also suitable as a retreat for a busy bee to escape on weekends from...
